More kids fall ill after taking deworming pills

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Kolkata/Rishra/Howrah: A day after 2,000 schoolkids fell ill after taking deworming pills in East Midnapore, South 24-Parganas and Howrah, the scare spread to Hooghly on Thursday.

At least 100 students from different schools at Serampore, Rishra and Arambag fell ill after being administered the same medicines.

Meanwhile, guardians of the kids allegedly tried to force the teachers to have deworming pills at Unsani High School in Howrah's Jagacha. In a bid to cash in on the issue, CPM youth wing DYFI burnt an effigy of Mamata Banerjee during a demonstration at Uluberia. Besides, Calcutta high court admitted a public interest litigation (PIL) filed by three advocates against the "unfortunate issue".

The PIL will come up for hearing in the division bench headed by Chief Justice Manjula Chellur.

On Thursday morning, panic spread among guardians at the Nandalal Institution in Serampore and Saibalini Devi High School in Rishra after several kids from both the schools were admitted to the Walsh Hospital Serampore and local nursing homes.

Several kids from Arambagh were admitted to the lo cal subdivisional hospital.

"My daughter started vomiting and stretching her arms after taking a deworming pill. Most of the other kids who fell ill showed similar symptoms," said Shyamoli Ghosh, a parent. A district health official said, "We are probing into the case. We are also monitoring the situation in government hospitals."

In Howrah, guardians of the Unsani High School in Jagacha demonstrated on the school premises after their kids were taken ill. After gathering in front of the school several guardians barged into the institution and started ransacking it. Some of them went to the teachers' room and threatened them with dire consequences. Some guardians allegedly tried to force teachers to take the dewor-

How A Spur-Of-The-Moment Decision Changed A Daily Wager's Life

Malda: Like other labourers, Mofijul Rahima Sheikh (22) had also reached Kerala to earn a living. But unlike his counterparts, he decided to try his luck in the hard times and bought a lottery ticket for Rs 50 from his first wage last Friday.

The labourer from Burdvan, who won a crore in the lottery on March 5, has finally returned home to Lakshmipur village on Thursday. And the only thing on his mind is his eight-month-old daughter Masuma. "I left home only a few days back. But I left home only a few days back. But it seems like I last saw my baby ages ago... Red Rd hit & run: Murder charge on Sambia Kolkata: The special investigation team of the detective department on Thursday submitted the chargesheet in the Red Road hit-and-run case.

Police have named four persons in the chargesheet. While murder charge was slapped on Sambia Sohrab, the son of former RJD MLA and present Trinamool leader Md Sohrab, the been charged under the same sections as Sanu and Johnie. Sambia's brother Ambia Sohrab, though, has not been named in the chargesheet. All four have also been charged with criminal conspiracy under IPC Section 120 (B).

The chargesheet, filed 58 days after the incident, has 330 pages and whom are either defence personnel or defence officials. The chargesheet is almost a vindication of the Army probe which had been claiming from day one that only one driver - whom they later identified as Sambia in the test identification parade — was at the wheel of the Audi that broke three guard rails on Red Road before hitting 21year-old Corporal Abhimanyu Gaud on January 13 during a Republic Day rehearsal.

TOI had earlier reported that the homicide squad of detective department, which was taking care of the legal aspects, had planned to slap murder charge only on the main accused Sambia Sohrab and that Ambia would not be named in the chargesheet.

Police say they now have clinching

"Two police constables identified Johnie and Sanu in the second car (Skoda), while 14 others, including Air Force officials and civilians, identified Sambia as the driver of the Audi that hit Gaud and fled," an officer explained.

According to a source, Sambia had received money thrice while on the run. On all three occasions, police have found that the men, who gave him money, were involved in wholesale fruit business establishing the fact that Sohrab was well aware what his
