RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF THE CANDIDATES

1. The examination will commence on the date specified in the corresponding announcement, and be held according to the programme previously notified.
2. Candidates are required to find their own allotted seats consulting the seat matrix available in each examination hall. They shall take their seats at least 15 minutes before the time appointed for the commencement of the examination.
3. No candidate will be allowed to leave the examination hall before one hour from the start.
4. Each candidate shall write, on the header of the answer book, Enrollment Number (but not his/her name) only.
5. Candidates are forbidden to carry into the examination Hall, or have in their possession during examination, any book, papers, writing scribbings or other materials except their Admit Card and Identity card. Any article carried into the Examination Hall or found in the possession of a candidate in contravention of this shall be liable to be seized by the officer-in-charge, and the candidates shall be liable to expulsion.
6. A candidate during examination shall not help or try to help any other candidate or try to obtain any help from any other candidate. Communication of any sort is strictly forbidden between the candidate or any other person, whether inside or outside the Examination Hall.
7. Candidates must not write any objectionable or improper remarks in their answer papers.
8. A candidate is required to produce his/her Admit Card and Identity card and to sign his/her name and other details as and when directed by the officer-in-charge.
9. Candidates are required to observe strictly the rules laid down by the Institute for the conduct of examination and the guidance of candidates.
10. Candidates are warned that any attempt to use any unfair means at the examination will render them liable to expulsion by the officer-in-charge from the examination or any part thereof and to such further penalties as the authority may determine.
11. If during and/or after the examination it is found the candidate does not fulfil all or any of the Rules and Regulations governing the examination, his/her examination is liable to be cancelled.
12. Notwithstanding the issue of the Admit Card, the Institute shall have the right, for any reason to cancel the admission of any candidate to any examination whether before, during or after the examination. The Institute may also debar a candidate from appearing at any subsequent Institute examination or examinations. The decision of the Institute in all such cases shall be final.
